Way to go, BOSS!

Fort Richardson's Better Opportunities for Single Soldiers attended the Army-wide BOSS Forum at the National Conference Center in Virginia April 29 through May 4. They group entered the Best Event Competition and received first place. The event highlighted was the Valentines Day card and rose delivery fundraiser. The event was a big success and encompassed the core values of the BOSS program: well-being, community service and recreation. About $700 was raised for a BOSS-sponsored snowmachine trip to Big Lake in March. BOSS representatives give a special thanks to Morale, Welfare and Recreation; the Warrior Zone; and the 95th Chemical Company for their Soldier support.
